Materas

Our pieces are handcrafted by Colombian artisans, shaping different elements from nature like earth, clay, fire and stone.

We work the classic and the simple learning from our ancestors; the results are beautiful sculptural forms in different colors and shapes which seem intrinsic to our mother earth's elements.

Each piece is unique and unrepeatable. We design extraordinary spaces that truly reconnect us with the beauty and harmony of nature.

“ We are nature, water, earth, clay and fire ”
